

---

Year One:

Workshop Outline

- History of Distress Screening
- Cultural & Ethnic Variation in Psychosocial Responses
- Communication Skills
- Screening & Standards
- Screening Instruments
- Building a Referral Network

Quarterly Video Conference Topics

- Setting Up Screening: Who? Where? With What? How?
- Referral Networks: Who? How?
- Achieving Your Screening Goals
- Achieving Your Network Goals

---

Year Two:

Workshop Outline

- Documentation & Quality Improvement
- Using IT Resources for Distress Screening
- Demonstration & Pilot Projects to Strengthen Your Distress Screening Program
- Marketing Your Distress Screening Program

Semi-Annual Video Conference Topics

- Understanding Cost & Reimbursement & Strategies to Sustain a Distress Screening Program in the Context of the Affordable Care Act
  - Using the RE-AIM Model to Strengthen Implementation & Maintenance of Your Program
-

The Screening for Psychosocial Distress Program will Cover:

- The full tuition for the program, which includes the one-day workshop that will be held the day before the American Psychosocial Oncology Society (APOS) annual conference
- Breakfast and lunch during the one-day workshop
- A $400 stipend for each individual ($800 per institution) to help defray the costs associated with attending the workshop; attendees will receive the stipend in the form of a check as part of the materials they receive on the day of the workshop
- The full (3-day) APOS annual conference registration fee

Next Steps:

APOS

american psychosocial oncology society

15th ANNUAL CONFERENCE Tucson, Arizona FEBRUARY 22 - 24, 2018

REGISTRATION
OPENING SOON

Each individual will need to register for the APOS 15th Annual Conference taking place on February 21-24, 2018 in Tucson, Arizona. Registration is not opened yet, but stay tuned, you will receive an instructional email just as soon as it does!