Our Terms of use

Please Read!

Code of Ethics: Every member of APOS agrees to uphold the Code of Ethics established by APOS. CLICK HERE for the Code of Ethics. Should you have any questions about the Code of Ethics, or should a situation that does not uphold this policy occur, please contact Dawn Keglör, APOS Executive Director, at dkeglor@apos-society.org.

Relevant Content Posting Policy: Messages on interest group lists must relate to the interest group focus. When seeking information or collaboration outside of your Special Interest Group focus, contact the APOS Executive Office at info@apos-society.org or send your request to the main APOS Listserv if appropriate. Announcements of conferences, workshops, and new relevant publications ARE allowed.

Career Postings: APOS has a strict policy against utilizing the Listservs to post career/job opportunities. Although members and non-members alike can advertise these opportunities through proper channels, APOS offers wonderful discounts to members for these services! CLICK HERE on how to advertise through APOS.

Surveys: APOS has a strict policy against utilizing the Listservs to survey the membership. All research surveys must go through the APOS Research Committee. CLICK HERE for more information on sending a research survey. For all other surveys, please email the APOS Executive Office at info@apos-society.org.

SIGs

(Special Interest Groups)

APOS members enjoy networking opportunities within our nine Special Interest Groups (SIGs). Members may click the links below to view SIG resources. Do you have special interest in one or multiple? There is no limit.

Bereavement: The Bereavement SIG promotes interdisciplinary research, professional networking and education related to grief and bereavement. Email: bereavement@apos.groupsite.com

Cancer Caregiver: The Cancer Caregiver SIG is open to all who are interested in the development and provision of services for caregivers of patients with cancer. Email: cancercaregiver@apos.groupsite.com

E-Health: The E-Health SIG provides a forum for sharing of ideas and experiences with the use of internet and social media to provide oncology supportive care educational, clinical, and research services. Email: ehealth@apos.groupsite.com

Health Equity and Cultural Diversity: The Health Equity and Cultural Diversity SIG promotes research, clinical and supportive care to identify cancer disparities and promote optimal health-related quality of life and survivorship outcomes for all. Email: healthequity@apos.groupsite.com

Integrative Health: The Integrative Health SIG is a forum where practitioners and researchers have opportunities for networking and gaining up-to-date knowledge on complementary and integrative therapies research and clinical applications in oncology care. Email: integrativehealth@apos.groupsite.com

Pediatrics/AYA: The Pediatric SIG is committed to advancing psychosocial care for children living with cancer and their families. Email: pediatrics@apos.groupsite.com

Psychiatric Oncology: Our goal in creating this SIG is to provide a forum to share ideas, resources, and information related to the diagnosis and treatment of psychiatric disorders and neuropsychiatric complications encountered in patients with cancer. Email: psychiatriconcology@apos.groupsite.com

Sexual & Reproductive Health: The Sexual & Reproductive Health SIG discusses ways to promote sexual and reproductive health in cancer research and clinical care. Email: reproductivehealth@apos.groupsite.com

Spirituality: The Spirituality SIG is an inter-disciplinary group dedicated to understanding the religious and spiritual needs of cancer patients and their families. Email: spirituality@apos.groupsite.com
